Order of the Head of the National Council for Peace and Order

No. 21/2560

On Amendments of Laws to Facilitate the Ease of Doing Business

Whereas Thailand ranks 46th in the World Bank Ease of Doing Business report out of 190 countries despite the Government's efforts to improve the environment for doing business which includes establishing accelerative measures, and improving operational process and services in various sectors in compliance with the World Bank report. It is found that certain conditions that create prominent problems and obstructions are the complexity and complication of criteria, procedures, conditions, steps, and time periods imposed by numerous laws, rules and regulations. Therefore, it is necessary to amend some provisions of the laws which have major impacts to promote and facilitate the ease of doing business as well as to help Thailand to rise in the rankings in the next evaluation of the World Bank, including to boost the country's competitiveness and to increase the opportunity of Thailand becoming an effective investment hub, which will contribute to the reform and the economic security of the country.

By virtue of Section 44 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand (Interim) B.E. 2557 (2014), the Head of the National Council for Peace and Order, with the approval of the National Council for Peace and Order, hereby issued the following order:

1. Section 1016 of the Civil and Commercial Code shall be repealed and replaced by the followings:

“Section 1016 Registration of partnerships and companies, any alterations subsequently made in the registered particulars, and any other matter required to be registered by the provisions under Title 22 Partnerships and Companies, shall be made to the Registrar at the Office of the Company Limited and Partnership Registration as determined by announcement issued by the competent Minister.”

2. The followings shall be added to Section 1020/1 of the Civil and Commercial Code:

“Section 1020/1 The competent Minister shall have the power to issue ministerial regulation to reduce or exempt the fees under section 1018 and section 1020.”

3. Section 1108 (1) of the Civil and Commercial Code shall be repealed and replaced by the followings:

16. Section 173 paragraph two of the Bankruptcy Act B.E. 2483 (1940) shall be repealed and replaced by the followings:

“For the purpose of this section, it shall prima facie be presumed that when the Receiver has published a receivership order in the Government Gazette and in a daily newspaper or advertise through other public electronics media, every person has had the knowledge of such order.”

17. In case the laws, rules, or regulations stipulate that a person who applies for approval, permission or permit, files for registration or declaration, or notifies must make use of documents issued to him by officials as accompanying document for consideration or proceeding, it shall be the duty of the person having the authority to approve, grant permission, issue permit, register, receive declaration or notification, to arrange for the department issuing such official documents to send information or copy of the documents as accompanying document for consideration or proceeding. If the person having such authority wishes to have a copy of the documents from the person who applies for approval, permission or permit, files for registration or declaration, or notifies, the person having the authority shall himself make the copy of such documents. For the purpose of this matter, the person who applies for approval, permission or permit, files for registration or declaration, or notifies shall not be charged for any expenses in the copying of such documents.

18. This Order shall come into force on the date of its publication in the Government Gazette.
